

CLASS OF 2012 - AUCTION & BAZAAR

Saturday, Sept. 17th - 8:00 - 11:00 a.m.

In conjunction with the Bellaire Fun Run on Saturday, Sept. 17th, the Class of 2012 will be holding a fundraising event in the MPR. This event will include an auction, a bake sale, and several vendor booths. Silent auction and vendor booths will open at 8:00 a.m. Live auction will start between 10:15 and 10:30 a.m.

AUCTION

Over 100 auction items will be available. A few of the highlights are:

Prime Parking Spaces – two reserved parking spaces on Maple St. right by the school. The winners of these spaces get to use them for the rest of this school year and until they are auctioned off next school year.

The Perfect Schedule – the winners (2) get to work with their counselor to create the perfect academic year in 2012-2013 by selecting their classes, class times and teachers!

Rockefeller Hall – free rental of Rockefeller Hall for an adult-only event any Sunday-Friday night (excluding December).

Sailing Trip – a 3-hour wine & cheese cruise for 3 couples (out of Clear Lake on a 40' sail boat)

Hill Country Getaway – a 3-night stay at a Bandera river house (date to be agreed upon with the owner).

Free Test Prep Help – several test prep companies have donated packages that your child can use to prepare for the SAT and/or ACT.

And Much More – gift certificates from lots of local restaurants and stores, jewelry, a piece of art by a local artist, lots of baskets, etc.

VENDOR BOOTHS

There will be several companies there explaining and/or selling their goods & services. Examples of the types of vendors are:

- beauty / skin products
- jewelry / flip-flops / hats
- portrait photographer
- art gallery
- test prep / tutoring services

This event is open to all Bellaire HS families plus your friends and neighbors. Spread the word and come support the Class of 2012.
